

Terms and conditions for RSPCA Young Photographer Awards 2020

1. The RSPCA Young Photographer Awards 2020 competition (the “Competition”) is run by the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (a charity registered in England and Wales, No. 219099), Wilberforce Way, Southwater, Horsham, West Sussex RH13 9RS (the “RSPCA”). These terms and conditions also refer to RSPCA Trading Limited Company no. 01072608 (the charity’s trading arm which gives all its profits to the RSPCA).
2. Your entry to the Competition can only be accepted online by registering at: <https://young.rspca.org.uk/ypa/home> and uploading your images on our dedicated portal. Please do not send it by post or email as unfortunately they will not be read or considered unless exceptionally, you have contacted us to make a prior arrangement.
3. The Competition is open to you if you live full-time in the United Kingdom and will be aged 18 years or below on Friday, 14 August 2020, unless you are a child or close relative of the judges of the competition (see para 26), or of employees of the RSPCA and Natures Images and Camtraptions. Proof of age, identity and eligibility may be requested.
4. Entrants 15 or younger must have a parent or legal guardian’s permission to enter the Competition. Please supply a valid email address for your parent or legal guardian, who will be contacted by the RSPCA to consent on your behalf to these terms and conditions of entry to the Competition.
5. Entries must be an original photograph/s that you have taken relating to an animal or animals and must fulfil the criteria for one or more of the following categories, set out in more detail at: young.rspca.org.uk/ypa/categories

Entry and specifications:

15. All entries should be submitted using the upload service at:

young.rspca.org.uk/ypa/home Parents/guardians submitting on behalf of an entrant aged 15 years and under will be required to approve the entry and agree to these Terms and Conditions (including the RSPCA's use of the photo) on behalf of the entrant, and must provide their own contact and personal details (not the child's).

16. Entrants are restricted to one online account. Any entrant found to have multiple accounts may be disqualified.
17. Any camera photos submitted to category C, or mobile phone images (including other devices) submitted to category A, may be disqualified. The same or similar photos may not be entered into more than one of the five possible categories referred to above. However, the RSPCA and Competition judges have the discretion to move photos into a different category if they deem it more appropriate.
18. All photos entered into the Competition must be a faithful representation of what the photographer saw at the time of taking the photo. Digital adjustments are only acceptable if they are for minor cleaning work, levels, curves, colour, saturation and contrast work. Entrants will be disqualified from the Competition if the RSPCA or the judges believe that the images have been manipulated or are not the entrant's original work. You may be asked to provide a digital negative or 'Raw' file (if your camera makes them); always keep the original image file. Images submitted with watermarks, copyright information, frames, overuse of filters or other digital effects, use of stickers and emojis and images that cannot be judged anonymously will be rejected.
19. Images uploaded should be no larger than 10MB. Make sure the image you upload is a JPEG and the highest quality image you have, sized no smaller than 600x600 pixels, but keep the 'Raw' file(s).
20. Entrants should not do anything to upset or stress animals in attempting to photograph them. Photos will be rejected from the Competition if the RSPCA or the judges believe that the photos show an animal in distress, or if they contain any unsuitable content. Please read each category for more information.
21. Entries cannot be returned so please retain a copy.
22. The same or similar photos to those entered into the Competition must not be entered into any other competition where the announcement of the winners is before 17 December 2020. Any photos entered that have previously won in a national or international photography competition will be rejected.
23. The opening date for entries is Monday, 4 May 2020 at 10am, United Kingdom time.

24. The closing date for online entries is Friday, 14 August 2020 at 12pm UK time. Any entries received by the RSPCA after this time will be rejected.
25. All entrants have the right to withdraw their entry prior to the closing date of Friday, 14 August 2020 by 12pm by sending an email request to: ypa@rspca.org.uk The entrant's account will be closed as soon as reasonably possible.

Judging:

26. The judges of the Competition are named on: young.rspca.org.uk/ypa/home The RSPCA will create a shortlist of the photos for each category, which will then be judged anonymously by the panel of judges.
27. All finalists in the Competition (other than People's Choice finalists) will be notified by the RSPCA by email or letter, no later than Friday, 23 October 2020. The decisions of the judges and the RSPCA are final and no correspondence will be entered into.
28. Unsuccessful entrants will not be contacted in respect of their entry. Although we are grateful to, and would like to encourage the efforts of, all participants, unfortunately we cannot give feedback on unsuccessful entries.

The winner will receive a UK weekend photography break, courtesy of Natures Images: for the winner and one accompanying adult. Travel to the location of the holiday is not included.
39. Prizes are non-exchangeable and no cash alternatives will be offered. The RSPCA may substitute a reasonably equivalent prize if any of the above prizes are unavailable for any reason. Prizes will be presented at an official awards ceremony (which may take place physically or virtually at the RSPCA's discretion) in December 2020 where the winners will be announced. Winners will be invited to the awards ceremony, however the RSPCA cannot pay for any travel or accommodation.
40. If we do not receive a response after notifying an entrant that they have been selected as a winner, or if any selected winner becomes not contactable at any time up to and including the awards ceremony, the RSPCA and/or the judges may select another winner in their place.

Personal information:

41. Each entrant (or entrant's parent or legal guardian if the entrant is aged 16 or under) agrees that, only for the purposes of promoting the Competition and future RSPCA Young Photographer Awards, the RSPCA may (1) use the entrant's first name, surname, county and age and (2) disclose the entrant's name and age to third parties. The RSPCA shall seek the entrant's prior consent (and/or the entrant's parent or legal guardian's prior consent if the entrant is aged 16 or under) before disclosing any further personal data to third parties. The RSPCA will not post the names and details of entrants aged under 13 years online without the entrant's parental or guardian's consent.
42. Personal information provided by finalists will be used for the purposes of administering the Competition where necessary (for example the provision of prizes as necessary for this purpose) and contacting the entrant about the next year's competition and in accordance with the RSPCA's Privacy notice:

rspca.org.uk/privacy The RSPCA will use the contact details of the entrant's parent or guardian to seek their consent to the entrant's participation in the Competition and administering their child's entry. The personal data of winners will be kept to enable the uses of their photos as described below.

Copyright:

43. All photos submitted must be the original work of the entrant and must not infringe the rights of any other person. The RSPCA cannot be liable if another person's rights are breached, and the parent or guardian of the entrant agrees to indemnify the RSPCA and/or RSPCA Trading Ltd* in respect of any claim from a third party that the entrant's work infringes their rights.
44. Entrants retain the copyright in their submitted photos. However, by entering the Competition under these terms, the entrant gives the RSPCA and RSPCA Trading Ltd* a perpetual, non-exclusive, worldwide royalty-free licence to use, reproduce, exhibit and post the submitted photos in any and all media, including media platforms yet to be envisaged for the purposes of promoting and publicising this Competition or future RSPCA Young Photographer Awards.

For potential use on products of the RSPCA or third parties licensed by the RSPCA, the entrant's permission will be sought, including use on RSPCA licensed products, which will be agreed as the subject of a separate agreement.

45. Wherever possible, the RSPCA will credit the entrant as the photographer.
46. Entrants agree in para 44 that the RSPCA may use the credited entry on its website for the duration of five years, after which all names and attribution will be removed.

General legal:

47. The RSPCA cannot be responsible for any entries that are lost, delayed, misdirected, damaged or incomplete, or for failure to receive or properly register any entries due to any technical failure or malfunction or other reason. The RSPCA reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions or cancel this Competition at any stage, if deemed necessary in its opinion, or if circumstances arise outside of its control. In either case we will give notice to entrants by posting the changes on the Competition website.
48. Entrants/their parents/guardians will be deemed to have accepted these terms and conditions and to agree to be bound by them when registering.
49. The law applicable to the Competition is English Law.
